Church News

- Pastor Noah Ho will commence as our Chinese pastor from 1 October.
- Father's Day next Sunday! Lunch will be available at church as usual.

Prayers

- Pray for our new Chinese pastor Noah Ho, his wife Margaret and family for as Noah commences as Chinese pastor in October. Pray that he picks up and settles in smoothly in his new role.
- Pray for faithfulness and strength of the leaders of church and ESM. May they be refreshed and led by the Holy Spirit and their yoke in ministry made light and easy by walking with the Lord.
- Pray for the young workers who joined the Engage 14 Conference last weekend that they live out the Gospel and missional life at work to witness Christ.
- Pray for the year 12s for diligence and focus on their study for HSC while they continue to rely on God for wisdom and guidance.
- Pray for those who are job searching.
- Pray for those who are holidaying or working overseas.
- Amidst the sorrows, sufferings and destructions from continual traumas and disasters around the world, pray that the power of the gospel brings hope and healing.
 - Pray for control strategies and development of vaccine for the accelerating outbreak of the deadly Ebola virus that has claimed more than 1,550 lives (over 3,000 estimated cases) in West Africa.
 - Pray for protection of innocent lives at continual fights between Russia and Ukraine.
 - Pray that the long-term cease fire agreement reached between Hamas and Israel on Tuesday would truly bring to an end the 50 days of violence which claimed the lives of 2143 Palestinians and 69 Israelites.
 - The Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS) is conducting a medieval campaign of murder and terror on a large scale across Syria and northern Iraq. They continue with daily beheadings, crucifixions, mass shootings and burying people alive. Pray for God's mercy on innocent people and the faith of the persecuted Christians.
